NOTES

Peru: The dispute between the president and congress remains deadlocked, and both sides have made statements charged with bitterness and frustration. Rumors of a military coup persist, usually mentioning 14 August as the date for action. US officials in Lima discount these reports. [redacted]

[redacted] Neither seems capable of going into action soon. If the rebel group in the eastern Congo led by Jean Schramme should move south to Katanga, however, the plotters outside the Congo might have a better base and more chance of success, but Schramme apparently intends to remain in Bukavu for the time being.
